CAPITAL NOTES.
The Wellington Strike Correspondence Brought Down—British Columbia Railway Projects.
The Canadian High Commissioner Criticized—The Tarte-McGreevy Matter Before the House.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

OTTAWA, May 22.—Returns brought down, to-day, of the correspondence relating to the calling out of C Battery on the occasion of the strike at the Wellington mines in August last. It is interesting reading. Mr. Gordon, in a letter to the Minister of Militia, strongly condemns the dispatching of the force to Wellington as entirely unnecessary. He terms the magistrates who signed the requisition as a triumvirate of scoundrels. The Adjutant-General recommends that the law be amended to require the magistrates to sign a requisition to accompany the troops.

All the British Columbia and Northwest members interviewed the Premier, to-day, to ask aid for the Nicola Valley railway and the B. C. Southern. Col. Baker made an able presentation of the claims of the latter company, which is thoroughly in earnest. Arrangements have been made, he said, with English capitalists to build the road, provided a Dominion subsidy were forthcoming. The construction of the railway will open up a valuable mining section. The Premier was evidently deeply impressed with the representations of the delegation. He said the Government had not yet considered whether or not subsidies should be given. The financial obligations of the Dominion were very great. Fifty applications for R. R. aid were made this year. He promised an earnest consideration of this request.

The Opposition made a bitter attack on Sir Charles Tupper to-night, Sir Richard Cartwright said he had set the civil service a disgraceful example. At whose request had Sir Charles Tupper come to Canada? The Premier frankly stated that Sir Charles had given an able and eloquent support to the Government at his request. Item, salary passed by 37 to 20.

The house had a bitter wrangle over the Tarte-McGreevy matter. Mr. Davies made a vicious attack on Sir Hector Langevin for not expediting the publication of the papers. The Minister said the Department were using all possible despatch. A big batch was ready to-day, and all will be down on Monday.

Afterwards the Opposition attacked Engineer Perley, which brought the Premier to his feet. He said he for one proposed to adhere to the British practice of believing a man innocent till he were proven guilty. The device of the Opposition seems to be to prejudice the case.

Lieut. Frederick Glover retires from service in the Westminster Rifle Company.

Mr. Savard, who defeated Caron in Chicoutimi, voted with the Government, to-night, on the question of Sir Charles Tupper's salary.

Mr. Earle introduced a bill to confer certain powers on the Victoria & North American Railway Company.

Mr. Prior brought up the bill respecting the Victoria, Saanich & Westminster Railway Company.

Ten witnesses have been summoned before the Privileges and Elections Committee for Tuesday.

WOMEN'S METHODIST MISSION.
Resumption of Business Yesterday—Reports of the Different Branches of Work—Interesting Details.

On resuming business yesterday morning a statement of the society's growth was made by Mrs. G. Grant, of Victoria.

Mrs. Crosby in reporting for the Girls' Home in Fort Simpson, said that there are at present 20 girls in the Home between the ages of four and sixteen, the majority being under ten, giving an as encouraging feature in the prosecution of their labors the fact that parents are at last beginning to appreciate the advantages of the Home for their girls.

The Cogualeetza Home, Chilliwhack, started three years ago by Rev. C. M. and Mrs. Tate, presented a report which was most encouraging.

Mesdames Tate and Crosby in advocating education amongst the Indians advised the establishment of homes for that purpose.

At 11 o'clock the ladies adjourned to the church, where Mrs. Tate, after being presented to the president of the conference, read an address asking the co-operation of that body in the work of the B. C. branch.

Rev. Dr. Carman and Dr. Sutherland made short speeches.

The President of the Conference asked the ladies to favor them with their presence during the remainder of the morning session. This the ladies regretted being unable to accept owing to press of business.

The afternoon session was opened by Mrs. Bowes.

Mrs. Pearson, of New Westminster, spoke in a very impressive manner of Chinese mission work.

The question box was opened, and the questions were answered by Mrs. Grant.

The children's hour having arrived, the girls from the Chinese Home were received, and sang both in English and Chinese.

A little later the Girls' Mission band in connection with the Pandora Avenue Church was received.

Mrs. Watson explained at length the work of mission boards.

A solo was very effectively sung by Miss Humber.

The following memorial was adopted:—

1st. This branch memorial committee recommend to the central board the desirability and fell necessity of a trained nurse to assist the Medical Missionary and Hospital Department, at Fort Simpson.

2nd. Whereas all missionaries find great difficulty in doing the best possible for the benefit of the parents of the children under their care, as well as the children themselves. They are anxious to get substantial help from the Indian agent, that will secure the children for regular attendance at school, as well as binding the parents to keep the agreements entered into upon the admittance of their children into the school.

And, whereas this is a very delicate subject to deal with, the Indians must be led and not driven, and also knowing that the Indian Department already feel the necessity of bringing the Indians under the laws regulating civilized life, they simply recommend that our minds be drawn in this direction, that we may help ourselves and others.

3rd. The B. C. branch wishes to express their appreciation of the work of the W.M.S. in the establishment of boarding schools and homes in B. C., and would desire to call the attention of the general board to the desirability of extending their work in this direction at all points where it is desirable to do so.

4th. That the annual meeting of our B.C. branch be held the first week in September of each year, and that all auxiliaries be requested to close their books and send in their reports to the corresponding secretary not later than the last week in August.

After further routine business, the meeting adjourned.

Prize Fight Postponed.

LONDON, May 22.—The fight between Carney and Burge has been postponed. It is the general opinion among sporting men that Carney has funked.

An Agent Wanted.

LONDON, May 22.—Bitter complaints are made in commercial circles because an agent for the Chicago World's Fair has not yet been appointed. Many firms are on the point of giving up their intention of sending exhibits to the Fair, and declare the English portion of the exhibition will prove a failure unless an agent be soon appointed.

Strung Up by Companions.

LONDON, May 22.—The coroner's inquest on the body of the boy Riding, who was strung up to machinery by his companions, and who was crushed to death when the machinery was started, resulted in a verdict of accidental death. The jury find that the boys could not have been conscious of the fatal consequences of their act, but advise that they be kept under supervision for some time to come.

The Manchester Cup.

LONDON, May 22.—This was the third day of the Manchester meetings. The principal event of the day, the race for the Manchester Cup, was won by "Lily of Lumley, with "Raglan" second, and "The Admiral," third.

Lord Lansdowne's Recall.

LONDON, May 22.—During the debate in Parliament over the massacre of Commissioner Quinton and his associates by the Manipuris, many of the liberals intend to oppose the punishment of the murderers, on the ground that they acted in self-defence. This will bring on a discussion of the alleged treachery of the Government towards the natives. It has been predicted by some that the agitation of this unsavoury subject will not cease until Lord Lansdowne is recalled from India.

Killed at a Fire.

DUBLIN, May 22.—The coroner's jury in the case of the two victims of Wednesday's Westmoreland fire, Inspector Doherty and Fireman Burke have found a verdict, placing the blame for the fatal accident upon the officials of the department. They advise the municipality to compensate the relatives of the victims. The men were killed by the breaking of a ladder while rescuing imperilled inmates of a burning building.

Co-operative Stores.

BERLIN, May 22.—The Westphalia miners have opened co-operative stores at Dortmund, Witten, Glensend, Kirkent, Oberhausen and other places. The Krupps introduced a similar system at their works, in Essen, some time ago.

WINNIPEG, May 22.—The election protest against the return of A. W. Ross, Conservative member for Lisgar, was dismissed by the full court.

Two Court Scenes.

ST. JOHN, N.B. May 22.—Two court scenes are the talk of the city, to-night. In one case, in which the Opposition leader, Mr. Hannington, and Attorney-General Blair were engaged as counsel, the former threatened to slap the latter's face, and the judge had to interfere to prevent a conflict. In the other, lawyer Geo. A. Davis so abused magistrate Ritchie that the latter committed him to jail for 24 hours for contempt.

PORT ARTHUR, May 22.—Full returns are now in. MacDonnell has 198 majority in Eastern Algoma, and 227 in the Western division. Total 425, or the largest polled for some years for a Conservative candidate.

MONTREAL, May 22.—R. B. Angus and Duncan McIntyre have purchased 25 tickets in the grand Derby sweep, and have presented them to the St. Andrew's home.

The Modus Vivendi.

HALIFAX, May 22.—Delegate Morine arrived at St. John's, Newfoundland, yesterday, from London. He is credited by Premier Whiteway to explain to the Newfoundland Legislature the requirements of the draft bill to temporarily enforce the Modus Vivendi. Morine says if this measure is not passed by the colony, Lord Knutsford will certainly attempt to push his Coercion bill through the Imperial parliament. In that event the delegates hope it would be defeated with the aid of the liberals, but the chances are so slight that Morine is determined to do his best to induce the Legislature of Newfoundland to pass the bill promised by the delegates as the lesser of two evils.

THE CYCLONE'S TRAIL.
Ruin Wrought by the Terrible Visitor in Missouri—People Slain—Houses Smashed.
Three Men Lay Down on the Earth and Clasped Hands, and Death Chose the One in the Middle.

MEXICO, Mo., May 21.—The cyclone which passed over the northern portion of Audrian county, yesterday, killed three persons and seriously injured a score of others, of whom four will die. The track of the storm was about 100 yards wide. The residences of Alex. Carter, William Powell, Dillard Brothers, George Crane, William Yoetmeier, T. B. Ham, Valentine Erdell, S. S. Norris, A. Ahlfeldt, J. M. Menefee, and John Doerger were literally torn to pieces. Doerger received injuries from which he died within an hour. His son, Otto, was seriously hurt. Yoetmeier, his wife and child, and Clarence Harvey, who was visiting there, was badly cut and bruised. S. S. Norris' house was blown to pieces and seven members of the family injured. Three of them, Miss Fletcher, Mrs. Scale and a small child, cannot live. Close at hand was the house of John Doerger, which was also demolished, a 6-year-old daughter killed, and the remainder of the family, five in number, painfully injured. All of Doerger's stock was killed. Three men, Mason Kernan, Thomas and Homer Rogers, seeing the storm coming, laid flat on the ground and clasped hands. Homer, who was in the middle, was killed, while the other two were uninjured. In the western part of the county the worst damage was done. At the farm of J. A. Harrison, his son was blown half a mile and lodged in a tree and fatally injured. Hundreds of cattle, hogs and sheep were killed.

EMPORIA, Kan., May 21.—A tempest, wind and rain storm visited this city and vicinity late last night. Great damage has been done to crops, buildings and fences. A house occupied by R. L. Dain was completely demolished, and one of his daughters fatally injured and one other seriously hurt.

CENTRALIA, Mo., May 21.—The cyclone near here yesterday passed a mile north of this place. By it a number of dwellings were destroyed and many persons injured. Barns and fences were swept away, and hogs and stock killed in large numbers. A horse belonging to Joseph Tucker was carried a quarter of a mile. John F. Harrison and family, his wife and eight children were all more or less injured. A child 10 years of age was carried half a mile, and when found had a stick driven through its left arm. Another child had its right leg broken in three places. Mrs. Richardson was seriously hurt, and H. C. Hunt, of Centralia, is reported fatally injured.

MOBERLY, Mo., May 21.—A most destructive wind, rain and hailstorm passed over this city, yesterday, completely breaking down crops of every description and damaging small stock. It is believed the damage will reach $30,000.

AMERICAN NEWS.

Disabled at Sea.

NEW YORK, May 22.—The Dutch steamer Vandam, belonging to the Netherlands line, is disabled at sea, with 260 passengers on board. A cablegram from London states the steamship was passed Sunday last in latitude 44 north, longitude 48 west. Her engines were stopped, and she was proceeding under sail. A strange steamer was alongside, presumably preparing to render assistance. The Vandam was bound for this port from Rotterdam. She left Rotterdam May 9th, and under favorable conditions ought to have been here on Sunday. The agents here say that she will try to make St. John's, N. F., or Halifax, as the place where she was sighted is off the coast of Newfoundland.

KILLED ON THE TRACK.
Thomas Finnigan, Section Foreman on the E. & N. R. R., Killed at Parsons' Bridge.

An accident occurred, yesterday afternoon, about six o'clock, on the Esquimalt & Nanaimo railway, by which Thomas Finnigan, a section foreman, lost his life. The deceased was between fifty and sixty years of age, and leaves a wife and several children. The deceased, it appears, was coming home from his work on a hand-car, accompanied by Tom Fagan and two Chinamen. Just before reaching Parsons' Bridge, a train was heard approaching, which turned out to be a special excursion for Nanaimo. Deceased's attention was called to this, and it was suggested that he should stop, but he is said to have concluded that he could get over the bridge before the train reached him. This he attempted to do, but the hand-car was struck on the bridge, with the result that Finnigan was at once killed. It is supposed he jumped off the car, but could not get out of the way. Fagan managed to escape uninjured, and so did one of the Chinamen, but the other was badly cut about the head, his wounds being dressed by Dr. McNaughton Jones when he arrived in town. One of the Chinamen was observed endeavoring to assist Finnigan, but ineffectually. The moment the engineer of the approaching train saw the hand-car he put on the air brakes but it was too late. The deceased who had been in the employ of the company for some years, was one of the company's most careful employes He never took any chances and was always accustomed to be governed by the rules of the road, to be prepared for trains at all times. He was highly respected by the company and his fellow employes.

That Chinese Shooting Case.

Ah Sam, a Chinaman employed by Dr. Hanington, who was accused of shooting three boys found fishing in the preserves of his employer, was yesterday before Judge Drake for trial. The evidence having been heard, the accused was found guilty. This morning, at eleven o'clock, Mr. Walker will apply that a fine be substituted for the penalty of imprisonment.

Millions of It Supposed to Be Aboard the Esmeralda.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—Capt. Scott, of the British steamer West Indian, believes the Chilian steamer Esmeralda, now at Acapulco, is a treasure ship.

"When I was in Chili," he said, "a few months ago and gave a large bond that none of the cargo of my steamer should get into the hands of the congressional, or insurgent power, I was informed by wealthy merchants of Coronel that, months before the war broke out it was looked for; and besides hoarding large supplies of coal in bunkers on the islands off the Chilian coast, over $10,000,000 gold and silver was collected and placed on board the Esmeralda after the war broke out, for safe keeping. That vessel is, without doubt, the treasure ship of the fleet and the sinews of war of the congressional party."

ATTACKED BY UNION SAILORS.

Captain Scott of the Steamer West Indian Loses Six of His Crew at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—The British steamer West Indian, which is engaged in Pacific Coast trade, and which has been trying to get a crew for the past ten days, was boarded at the Mission street wharf today by a crowd of union sailors, who drove off six non-union sailors. Captain Scott and Mate Lock attempted armed resistance but were obliged to desist. Several people were injured by flying lumps of coal. Capt. Scott said he would require warrants for the arrest of all the prominent members of the Coast Seamen's Union from the secretary down.

A LETTER FROM DR. DAVIE.

To the Editor—During my trip through Europe, &c., taken almost entirely that I might see the present methods of the leading medical men in the various centres of learning, I have, of course, noticed many things not connected with my profession. In many ways, America I find to be in advance of the older continent, the former seizes a new idea or invention and quickly carries it to its practical conclusion, while in Europe a thing may be known—in fact, inaugurated here—but not generally utilized.

There is a lesson, however, we may learn from London and other large cities, viz.: How to properly make the streets in our most crowded thoroughfares.

I find the streets of London to be made in three ways—either of square blocks of stone laid closely together, of asphalt, or of wooden block pavement. The first method makes a very noisy, uncomfortable street to drive over, and is very destructive of carriages and horses, besides having other disadvantages which will suggest themselves to everyone. The second plan has many advantages, but becomes so slippery under certain conditions, that a common sight is a pair of horses down on their sides, falling again and again in their endeavours to recover their feet. The third class of street on the other hand is safe—comparatively noiseless, can easily be kept clean, is very durable, makes the draught of vehicles very light, and is certainly a great saving in wear and tear of horses and carriages, &c. This pavement is made in the following manner:—The bed of the road is first made of proper shape, nearly flat, only a very slight elevation of the centre of the road being necessary. It is well rolled, &c., and is now covered with a composition of Portland cement and fine gravel in the proportion of two of the former to six of the latter. In the centre of the road this requires to be six inches deep, gradually becoming thinner towards the side, where it need not be more than one inch thick. This is the expensive part of the work—it is the foundation for the wooden blocks to rest on. At one time this foundation was made of boards, laid on the flat, but this proved not sufficiently durable. Over the cement and ballast foundation are laid with the grain at right angles to the surface of the road, blocks of wood ten inches in length, four inches in width, and six inches in depth, each block being previously dipped in a coal-tar preparation. A little fine gravel is now strewed over the road so made, and it is fit for use. I am informed that a road made in this way lasts fifteen years in the centre of London, and I would suggest to our City Fathers that they adopt this class of road-bed for the city of Victoria. Our present streets are not a credit to us, and they are becoming worse every year, as our city grows and traffic necessarily increases. A beginning might be made by putting this pavement down from Campbell's corner, along Government street to Fort and up Fort to Douglas, thence to Yates street and down the latter to the point of commencement. A very short experience of a street made in this manner would convince every one of the truth of what I have written. This plan of building streets is the result of long experience of the municipal government of London.

I am, &c., J. C. Davie, M.D.

London, May 2, 1891.

JESSUP VS. DeCOSMOS.

To the Editor:—The following item appeared in your journal this morning;

Jessup vs. DeCosmos.

In the Supreme Court, yesterday, the case of Jessup vs. DeCosmos was heard, being an action to compel the defendant to sign a new deed in connection with the transfer of the old Methodist church to the latter. The application was granted; each party to pay his own costs.

It so grossly misrepresents me that, in the absence of Mr. Charles Wilson, my exclusive counsel in this suit, I beg leave to request the favor of the insertion of this note in your issue of to-morrow, to remove from the public mind the false impression that the above item may have created. Now, sir, instead of Jessup bringing an action to compel me "to sign a new deed in connection with the transfer of the old Methodist church" to me, I through Mr. Wilson, brought an action, first, to compel Jessup et al. to vacate a lis pendens they had registered against the above premises. It arose in this way: Messrs. Yates & Jay, conveyancers, represented the trustees of the Methodist church as well as myself. A deed of mortgage was made on June 2nd, 1890, for the unpaid balance. I paid $50, my share of conveyancers' fees, and left the matter of registration of the papers in that legal firm's hands. Subsequently I heard that Jessup et al. had registered a lis pendens, but I was informed and believed it to be true that both the title and the mortgage were registered, and so let the matter rest. On October 14th, 1890, Mr. Jay handed me a notarial copy of the mortgage, and, to my amazement stated that the original had never been registered. Next morning I took the papers to Mr. C. Wilson, barrister, and he instituted proceedings to compel Jessup et al to vacate the lis pendens, as I had never interposed any obstacle to a settlement of any alleged errors that might have been made by the conveyancers in the mortgage. Mr. Wilson's summons to vacate the lis pendens, was issued on November 10th, 1890, and was made returnable on the 12th November. The next day, November 11th, late in the afternoon, I received a writ of summons, issued by Mr. E. V. Bodwell, instituting a suit. This was the first personal service in the suit, of which I had official notice. When the case was heard, Mr. Bodwell was ordered to furnish a statement of his case. Mr. Wilson, on my behalf, put in his answer, and subsequently did all he could to effect a settlement, but without effect. Yesterday, however, it came up for trial, and after a patient hearing the decision of the court was entirely as I wished it to be, —with the exception of costs,—each party being made liable for his own costs only. There never was a time that I was unwilling to settle, if there were anything to settle, on the terms of the bargain, and so I continuously urged Mr. Wilson to use every legal means to settle the matter as soon as possible. But the delay was wholly caused on the side of the trustees. Why it was so I cannot say; except some curvilinear Christian has been actively engaged in spreading some maglignant influence.

A. DeCosmos.

May 22nd, 1891.

STOCK-RAISING ON THE CEDAR HILL ROADS.

To the Editor:—Will you permit attention to be drawn to what has developed into a serious public nuisance, viz.: The practice with some unscrupulous persons of keeping cows, though minus the essential land to maintain them on, the obvious result being that no fence will keep these sporting cattle off the property of other people. Under such conditions a number of cows rusticate about the above highways, homeless and starving, impelled to break in on every field, in desperation, to sustain their miserable lives. And the virtuous farmers, thus unhappily involved, lose much time and resignation, besides being unduly obliged to wear out their light dancing boots, to facilitate, rapid flank movements against the marauders. Of course, no one of ratiocination blames the unfortunate, though erring cows. They get the sympathy—and all loose rock within reach at the time—of owners thus intruded on without invitation, much after the fashion, and with about as much manners as the visits of the cheap "sports" at other seasons, and the cows have in consequence developed high speed and staying power—especially if it is a clover field they are on. They also forage generally about the district—to further snatch up any cabbage gardens available—a distance in the day equal to what an orphan cat is said by experts to attain single-handed, at night, 52 miles. In fact, if they—the cows, not the cats—were broken to the saddle, the shine would fall instanter off some learned knights of the pig skin, showing how fields are really won—turnip ones more especially, for no lawful fence, less than that of the "Seven Sisters" block in town, would be any obstacle to these cows "of ours," and if the system obtains of stock farming generally on the highways, such fences will be imperative. So pending their erection—properly fortified, of course, for exigencies—any ad interim advice would be gratefully received and acknowledged afterwards to the bovines, by these presents, referred to.

INTIMIDATION, &c.

Now that the case of the processionists, who were accused of intimidating the men working in the Wellington mines, has been settled, there can be no harm in entering into a slight enquiry as to what constitutes intimidation, and how far it is fair and right to interfere with men who are pursuing their lawful business, in a lawful way. It will be admitted that every man has a right to use the roads of a country district and the streets of a town, as long as he does not seriously interfere with the rights of others. It is the right of every man, in a civilized country, to walk on the highways and to carry on his business without molestation. As long as a man is civil, he is entitled to civil treatment from those he meets, and it is the business of the Government to secure for him such civil treatment. The law-abiding citizen should not be protected from violence only, but from insult. Words can be uttered by those whom a man meets that can cause him more pain, and do him more injury, than almost any number of blows. To knock a man down who offers offence to no one, is not, by any means, the worst injury that he who bears him ill-will and wants to injure him can do to him. Reproaches can be hurled at him, nicknames called out, and insulting demonstrations can be made, which are harder to bear and more injurious than the blows of even a bludgeon. Now, we ask, should not the law protect peaceable citizens from insults of this kind? We know that in all properly governed cities it does. If some ill-tempered and ill-designing man should shout approbious epithets whenever he passed a fellow citizen who had not addressed him, he would be quickly taken charge of and required to answer for his offence before the police magistrate. If he persisted in his insulting or intimidating demonstrations, after he had been warned, he would be lodged in jail and kept there until he became convinced that, although the highways are free to him to use, they are not free to him to annoy or insult his neighbors.

In the same way, every man has a right to carry on his business, provided he does so without encroaching upon the lawful rights of others. It is the function of Government to protect him in the exercise of his calling. If any man, or any body of men, should by insults and hostile demonstrations try to prevent men from working, or to annoy them when they are at work, those who are injured in this way have a right to call upon the Government to protect them, and, if Government does not promptly and effectively put a stop to the offensive acts, it does not do the work it is constituted to perform. The law which does not provide a remedy for injuries of this kind is a most defective law. But the laws of this and other countries do provide the remedy, but it is not always properly or quickly applied.

It stands to reason that men in a civilized community should be protected in carrying on their lawful business, for if they are not the most serious disorder is sure to follow. When men find that the law does not protect them they are certain, sooner or later, to take measures to protect themselves. This is what is now being done in Washington State. There we see workmen taken to the scene of their labors under an escort of armed men. These armed men are not servants of the Government sent to enforce the supremacy of the law; but they are employed by individual employers to protect those whom they have hired from violence. But this is not the worst. When the workmen get to the end of their journey, deadly weapons are placed in their hands, to be used for their own protection. No one will for a moment say that the country in which such a state of things as this exists is a well governed country. It is the reverse. The Government, unable or unwilling to do its proper work, has suffered the country to take a long stride towards barbarism—to that state of society in which every man must go armed to protect himself from injury and insult.

But what has taken place in Franklin is certain to take place in any country when those who are entrusted with the administration of good laws are either too timid or too ignorant, or are too much in sympathy with law-breakers, intelligently and firmly to carry those laws into effect.

It is for the good of the whole community—the law-breakers as well as its other members—that men should be compelled to respect the rights of their fellow citizens. No man has a right to insult or to intimidate, by words or by acts, his neighbor, neither has he any right to do anything intended to prevent him doing his business in a lawful way. Good laws have been enacted for the protection of law-abiding citizens, and every good member of society should do his part towards having them enforced. Nobody is benefitted and the community is injured when offences against honest and unoffending men are allowed to go unpunished.

UNTIMELY REJOICING.

The Times is in great glee to find that there is a prospect of Victoria being treated unjustly by the Dominion Government in the matter of appropriations for public works. It finds it impossible to conceal its delight. It chuckles at the idea of Victoria being compelled to do without proper Custom House and Post Office accommodation, an indefinite time longer. Although it did its little best a few weeks ago to convince the authorities in Ottawa that if the China steamers did not call at Victoria the shabby little Custom House, that is a disgrace to the city, will be large enough for its needs, it sneers at and taunts the supporters of the Government because their requests and representations have been disregarded. This is certainly not the course which a newspaper supported by the citizens of Victoria should pursue, or the spirit it should evince. It should, once in a while, try to take some other than a party view of important public matters, and should have too great a regard for the credit and prosperity of the city than boisterously to rejoice when she is denied what is evidently her due. But this is always the way that the organ of the Opposition acts when the Government is asked to do anything to benefit either this city or the province. It does what it can to discourage those who make the demand and to prejudice the Government against it, and then, when compliance is deferred or the request denied, it rejoices in the most unseemly manner.

AN INAPPROPRIATE TITLE.

We see in an English publication called "Emigration" a good article under a bad heading. That heading is "Colonial Jealousy." The careful and discerning reader of the article will see that it is not jealousy that makes Canadians unwilling to see their country flooded with a certain class of immigrants, but simply prudence. This seems to be the opinion of the writer himself, for, after accusing colonists of being jealous of the new arrivals from the Mother Country, he says:—

"We do not mean to say that he will not be kind to his neighbors—that is a part of the colonial creed that is never departed from—but he is by no means anxious to increase the circle of his acquaintance. Hence we are continually receiving warnings that emigrants are not wanted in Canada, as if the vast provinces of our northern colony were over populated or the east and west had never been united by the magnificent railway track which is one of the wonders of the empire. The plain truth of the matter is that our brethren across the seas are not so much averse to new arrivals as they are heartily afraid of undesirable emigrants. They do not desire their new location to be flooded with wastrels or incapables, and so, too often, we find statements made as to the requirements of a colony which are absolutely misleading."

That is just it. Canadians do not want undesirable emigrants. Are they to blame for that? When they find the towns from Vancouver to Halifax flooded with clerks and mechanics, with lawyers, doctors and clergymen, is it surprising that Canadians say we do not want either clerks or professional men, or mechanics, from the other side of the ocean. We are well supplied with men of these occupations already. But farmers, in all parts of the country, need help, and there are millions upon millions of acres of wild land waiting for the hand of the tiller. Is it jealousy then, that impels the Canadian to tell his English friends that what are wanted in this country are men and women who are ready to go upon the land, to cultivate it, not emigrants who will hang about the hotels and boarding houses of towns waiting, often vainly, for a job. When a man has enough of any article, he does not want to increase his supply of that article. It is not jealousy that causes him to refuse it when more is offered him, it is simply common sense. Canadians discourage persons to come to this country with no definite aim but just to seek their fortune. Fortunes are not so easily found here as many seem to expect. Some of the fortune hunters may fall upon their feet and do very well, but the greater number of them will, in all probability, for a long time find quite enough to do to keep soul and body together. But it is different with the settler and the agricultural laborer. They, knowing what they want, and there being places for them, find work immediately and the great majority of them who are industrious and sober do very well indeed. But those who imagine that Canadians do not know what "the struggle for existence" means are greatly mistaken. That struggle is going on here and all over the continent, for that matter. The fittest survive us in the older countries, the main difference between the New and the Old World in particular being that the proportion of survivors is considerably greater in the new country than in the old. Many men by strenuous exertion, and by making a good use of their opportunities, better their condition in Canada. But they must exert themselves and watch their chances if they want to succeed As little comes to the idler and the nerveless waiter, upon Providence here as in any other country. The self-reliant man who goes to work in the right way gets on. He is often helped and encouraged by colonial sympathy and seldom or never impeded or discouraged by colonial jealousy.

WISE AND HUMANE.

The Corporation, when it made provision for the isolation and maintenance in comfort of men afflicted with leprosy, did what was both wise and humane. There was no hope for the poor creatures. Leprosy is believed by the most skilful physicians to be incurable. When the disease once takes hold of man, woman or child, it keeps on doing its dreadful work until death releases the sufferer. The disease is believed to be contagious, and it is known to be hereditary. From some reason or other the spread of leprosy of late years has been so considerable as to alarm those who have made the disease a subject of enquiry. There being no hope of recovery for the unfortunate lepers, and their presence in the community being a constant source of danger, the best, the wisest, and the most merciful thing to do with them, was to place them on an island by themselves, where they may, if they make the necessary exertions, live as comfortably and as happily as their unfortunate condition permits. It would be well if it were possible to have some person of intelligence and force of character on the Island to make rules for the exiles and to compel their observance, for it is to be feared that when they are left entirely to their own devices they will not do what is necessary to enable them to live in anything like comfort. This was the case with the Sandwich Island lepers, before Father Damien left the decencies and the comforts of civilization to take charge of them. It is to be hoped that the Corporation, since it has done so much for the lepers of this city, will keep an eye on them and see that they do not suffer from their own ignorance or indolence. Father Damiens are not to be found every day and in every place, but there is no doubt in this city some good, large hearted soul who will take an interest in the little colony, and do what is required to prevent the unfortunates who compose it undergoing sufferings that can be guarded against.

ON FIRE WITH ECZEMA

Terrible Sufferings of Little Baby. Seven Doctors and two Hospitals fail. Cured by Cuticura.

My baby boy, 5 months old broke out with eczema. The itching and burning was intense; the eczema spread to his limbs, breast, face and head until he was nearly covered; his torturing agonies were pitiable to behold; he had no peace and but little rest night or day. He was under treatment at different times and by seven doctors in this city without the least benefit; every prescription of the doctors was faithfully tried, but he grew worse all the time. For months I expended about $3 per week for medicines, and was entirely discouraged. I purchased CUTICURA, CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and followed the directions to the letter. Relief was immediate, his sufferings were eased, and rest and sleep permitted. He steadily improved, and in nine weeks was entirely cured and has now as clear a skin and is as fair a boy as any mother could wish to see. I recommend every mother to use it for every Baby Humor. Found Drowned in a Well.

Fred Neill, a Victoria hackman, who for some time was employed by Marsden Bros., was found drowned in a well near Cedar Hill yesterday afternoon. He had gone out into the country several days before, for a rest, his mind being a little unbalanced, and after sleeping until late one morning, sprang out of bed and started towards town, only very scantily clad. His friends gave chase, but did not overtake him, and being naturally alarmed searched all day yesterday. Neil had evidently been stunned by his fall into the well, and drowned with no one near to aid him. An inquest will be held.

Not an Easy Task.

Yesterday Mr. Jones succeeded without much difficulty in taking an excellent group photograph of the delegates to the Methodist Conference at present in session. It was with them a case of "stand fast," until the operator had completed his work. He next essayed to "capture" the ladies belonging to the Woman's Methodist Missionary Society, who are also holding their annual convention. He found this contract, however, a much more difficult one than that which he had so successfully finished, and time and again he pressed the button; but only to obtain a somewhat confused mass of femininity and dry goods. It seems that, with some of the fair ones the desire was so keen to appear at their best, to assume such and such a pose and to have this or that article of apparel or ornament sit "just so," that there was a development of nervousness and giggling which could hardly be suppressed. However, finally, the picture came out with a sufficient amount of fidelity to justify the photographer in concluding that he might call "hold, enough!"

The Fireworks Arrive.

The delayed fireworks for use on Monday evening, arrived by the Islander, last night, in plenty of time to be put in position. The gentleman in charge promises the finest exhibition ever seen on the coast, outside of San Francisco. *

The American s. s. "Pinta."

The U. S. gunboat "Pinta" came out of the Esquimalt graving dock on Thursday, having had her bottom overhauled. She now lies out in the stream, to have her boilers and machinery overhauled by the Albion Iron Works.

Speedy Trial.

Yesterday the case of Guiseppe Paqualante, charged with stealing $110 from Julius Frank, was brought up in the Supreme Court and, the prisoner having chosen a speedy trial, the case was fixed for Tuesday, before Mr. Justice Drake.

Driver.

Driver is the name of the lecturer who is coming to Victoria, and in his encounters with Ingersoll has proved himself to be a "driver" by his logic and deep reasoning, and is fully prepared to show that Christianity is more natural and reasonable than infidelity.—Next Tuesday night, Y.M.C.A.

The By-Law Passed.

At a special meeting of the City Council last night, the by-law to authorize a grant of $25,000 to the British Columbia Agricultural Society, for the purpose of assisting them to procure new grounds and buildings was passed, to be submitted to the ratepayers for their approval at the earliest date possible.

At the Park.

Ald. Munn has taken especial pains in having the Park prepared for the celebration. The grass has been cut and watered, the trees pruned, and the roads levelled, so that no fault can be found with them by the riders of the lightest bicycle. Victoria's public gardens are the most beautiful in the land, and never did they look better than now.

It Pays.

Intending passengers to Europe are recommended to save expense, inconvenience and delay by securing their staterooms before leaving (telegraphed for free of charge) through Messrs. Hall, Goepel & Co., agents for all first-class Atlantic liners. Parties giving orders for passages for friends or relations to Victoria may depend on every care and attention being secured to insure a comfortable journey.

Police Court.

Mr. Thomas Shotbolt, J.P., occupied the bench in the City Police Court, yesterday morning, and had but one case to dispose of, namely, that of a gentleman charged with driving over James Bay bridge at a pace faster than a walk. He pleaded guilty and was fined $5.

Mr. Walker will appeal from the decision given in the case of Ah Chin, charged with keeping a gambling house, wherein the prisoner was sentenced to two months' imprisonment.

In Season.

The season for wearing Summer Serges is now here.

Geo. R. Jackson, 68 Douglas street, to be up to the times, has just imported the largest assortment in the province of the black blarney serges, which are having such a run in the east, and which every good dresser must possess a suit of. There are no other serges like the Irish, and there are no Irish serges like the blarney; and Jackson's is the only place in Victoria this season's can be procured. *

Centenary of Methodism.

Last night Rev. Dr. Carman addressed a very large audience in the Pandora avenue Methodist church on the subject of the centenary of Methodism, it being a hundred years since John Wesley died. He first described the history, policy, doctrines and usages of Methodism. John Wesley, he said, was born in 1703, and died in 1791. Methodism recognized woman's position in the church, and recognized her indebtedness to Susanna Wesley and Barbara Heck. The distinguished doctrines of Methodism were, 1st, a thorough knowledge that I am a sinner; 2nd, a knowledge that I am forgiven.

Special Trips.

A large contingent of Wellington miners will come down to-day by special train, and will probably remain in the city until Monday night.

The City of Seattle will make an extra trip from the Sound and Bellingham Bay ports Monday morning, and will no doubt bring many passengers.

The regular steamers from all quarters brought crowds of pleasure seekers yesterday, and many more are coming to day.

The Yosemite will take out a party of moonlight excursionists to-morrow evening.

The steamers George E. Starr and Rainbow will bring over Port Angeles people to-day, the excursion by the former being arranged by the firemen.

Suicide at Esquimalt.

Esquimalt, usually so quiet, has now a tragedy to talk over. James Holman, a well known boatman, about 60 years of age, threw himself off the pier with the deliberate intention of ending his life, at an early hour in the morning, and his body has not yet been recovered. He first came to Esquimalt 35 years ago, then made his home in the States for some time, returning to Esquimalt about nine years ago. Having been in early life a man-of-wars-man, he naturally embraced the work of a waterman, which he pursued with profit. He leaves a wife and five children at Olympia, domestic discord having caused a separation. Of late Holman has been very morose and despondent, and several times threatened to commit suicide, although his threat was not paid any attention to. A bar-tender in one of the hotels saw him going down to the pier, between twelve and one o'clock yesterday morning, and a few minutes later heard the splash which is supposed to have been caused by his leap from the dock.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN!

The First Day of the Great Celebration Will Be An Extremely Interesting One.

Athletic Sports Will Rule, and Some Good Matches Are On—The Various Teams.

The loyal celebration of the 72nd birthday of Her Most Gracious Majesty, the Queen, commences to-day in this city bearing her honored name. As in former years, elaborate preparations have been made for the entertainment of all, and the result is that the city is full of visitors, every regular and special steamer arriving last evening, bringing its quota of pleasure seekers. Hotels and restaurants have so far been able to meet the calls made upon them for accommodation, but private houses will no doubt be asked to throw open their doors before Monday.

Baseball, lacrosse and field sports will be the great attractions to-day, although the sailing matches and cricket are also eagerly looked forward to. The Victoria band of 20 musicians, under Prof. Pferdner's direction, will be on hand to enliven the proceedings, from nine in the morning, and as well as the Highland pipers in kilts and tartans, will be at Beacon Hill park half-an-hour later, when the sports commence.

The first item on to-day's programme is the international baseball match of Port Townsend. The game will be called at 9.30 sharp.

"AMITIES V. COLTS

The game this morning between the above teams promises to be the most exciting game played on Beacon Hill, for years. The Townsend aggregation of ball-tossers arrived on the Kingston, yesterday, under the management of Charley Lange, the old-time favorite baseball enthusiasist. Among the players are: big Sam Smith, who played first for the Seattle League team of last season; Jim McDonald, a veteran California ball player, and Charlie O'Neill, late of the Oaklands. John Reiderbach, who has been teaching the Britishers in the Mother Country how to manipulate the sphere, during last season, will again appear in the box for the Colts. Mathias, a well known player in Portland and Seattle will guard the third corner.

The Amities will place Robinson, late of St. John, N. B., in the box, and old reliable Jack Hannan behind the bat. Meade, who is another example of Canadian interest in baseball, will cover the initial. Hailing from Toronto, which is a great ball town, he will no doubt do credit to the team.

Ed. Burnell, who is an old time Seattle player and a favorite with Victorians, will be in left, while the veteran catcher, Geo. Borthwick, who is still slightly out of form, owing to the severe illness he lately underwent, will look after the right field. Jack, as usual, will gather in any stray hits which may be made towards short-stop's territory. The following is the make-up of the teams:

Townsends.	Position.	Amities.
Lange	Catcher	Hannan
J. Reiderbach	Pitcher	Robinson

Game called at 9:30 a m.

YACHT RACES.

The starters in the two classes eligible for the sailing match will be sent away from off Beacon Hill at 10 o'clock, and will follow the course as published yesterday. The starts in both events will be simultaneous, and fast time is promised by several of the white-winged birds of the foam. In order that spectators may watch the race intelligibly, the entries are again published:—

POWDER EXPLOSION.

Sealing Schooner Juanita Brought Into Port With Her Upper Cabin Blown Off.

She Is Badly Damaged, and Her Captain and Four of Her Crew Scorched.

The sealing schooner Juanita was brought into port last night by a number of Indians, bearing every evidence of having undergone some exceedingly rough treatment. Her deck cabin was gone, and so soon as she was boarded it became manifest that she, as well as her crew, had had a very narrow escape. Her cabin was a total wreck, what was left of its fittings being piled up on the deck in a confused mass of debris. In the forecastle lay her master, Captain Lorenze, and her mate, James Henderson, together with three others of her company, whose faces were a mass of cuts, burns and powder marks. Their hands, too, were injured, while their clothing bore marks of rough usage. The schooner was brought in from Quatsino Sound by George McDonald and three Indians. It is stated that on Monday last, while waiting for a crew in Quatsino Sound, the captain and several men were engaged filling cartridges, and in the afternoon the captain fitted some of them with his gun, the hammer being up. All of a sudden, as he was closing the hammer, one of the cartridges exploded, the ball striking a keg of powder and igniting it, the result being that the stern of the schooner was almost blown out. Fortunately another keg of powder which was also on board was untouched, or not one of the men would have remained alive. Dr. Milne was sent to the vessel, and having attended to the wounds of the sufferers, which, with the exception of the captain's are not very serious, arranged for their being sent to the Marine Hospital, where they went later on in the evening. An examination late last night, after the men had reached hospital, showed that the burns were worse than had been expected.

Church Notices.

Usual services Sunday at 11 a.m., and 7 p.m. The pulpit in the morning will be supplied by the Conference of the Methodist church now in session in this city. In the evening the pastor will preach. Subject of evening sermon, "Reasons for national rejoicing."

Frank Campbell's Corner Travelling.

One of the features of the celebrations, and one which will be highly appreciated by lovers of the fragrant weed, is to be undertaken at the sole expense of Frank Campbell. Mr. Campbell will have an exhibition on wheels in the shape of specimens of the fruit made from the tobacco plant, and smokers will find the choicest cigar, cigarette, or old cut plug just there. This travelling cigar store will be at the hill to-morrow and Sunday and will visit the scene of the regatta on Monday. It will be known as Frank Campbell's Travelling Cigar Corner, and will be suitably decorated. Included in the exhibition will be a tame white rat, which is trained to do all sorts of tricks. It is the property of Stephenson & Jones of the Pritchard House. Frank promises that his corner abroad shall in every respect be as popular as the old and widely known one at home on the corner of Government and Yates streets. 2t

Are You Thinking of Building a House and Making a Home in Victoria ?

You will choose a sunny site, sheltered from the cold winds. Land must be of moderate price, as you will want a good-sized plot for lawn and garden. The streets must be wide, and you should have front and back entrance. You should choose some place commanding one of the magnificent views that may be had around Victoria. Your home should be within easy distance of the beach, at some place where it is easily accessible and sheltered. Then you must have easy and cheap connection with your business and the centre of the city—that is, you must be close to the tramway, with five cent fare to any part of the city.

METHODIST CONFERENCE.

Votes of Thanks to the Retiring Officers—Address from the Women's Missionary Society,

The Conference Will Respect the Queen's Birthday by a Suitable Adjournment.

The Methodist Conference resumed its sessions in the Pandora Avenue Methodist church yesterday morning. After the usual devotional exercises and the disposal of routine work, a number of questions were referred to committee, whose reports will come up for disposition in due course.

On motion of Rev. E. Robson, seconded by Mr. S. Gough, it was unanimously resolved: "That we desire to place on record our high appreciation of the efficient and satisfactory manner in which the Rev. Cornelius Bryant has discharged the duties of his office as president of this conference during the past year, and we pray that he may long be spared to labor for the Master whom he has so faithfully served in this country."

Votes of thanks and appreciation were also unanimously tendered to Rev. J. H. White, the secretary of Conference, and also to the assistant secretary.

In view of the season of the year, especially owing to the celebration of the birthday of Her Gracious Majesty, it was resolved that the Conference would rise on Monday at noon, to meet again on Tuesday morning.

The Conference will hold no session this (Saturday) afternoon, but at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. J. Hall will deliver a paper before the Theological Union on "points of difference in the theology of our church with that of other churches." The public are cordially invited to attend.

A delegation from the Woman's Missionary Society was received and the Conference was addressed by Mrs. (Rev.) C. M. Tate on behalf of the B. C. branch of the W. M. S. The following is a copy of the address:

To the British Columbia Conference of the Methodist Church:

The hearty reception given to representatives of the Women's Missionary Society last year by the members of this Conference, encourages us to come again, trusting that you will accord us a patient hearing. Last year we felt that it was indeed the day of small things with us, as we laid before this Conference the fact that we had only three auxiliaries in this Province, one at Victoria, one at Richmond and one at Chilliwhack. It gives us great pleasure, and affords us a good deal of satisfaction to state that during the year the three have increased to nine. Two mission bands have also been organized and the children are becoming interested in the work of the W.M.S. We heartily appreciate all the organizations in connection with our glorious Methodism, and trust that the W.M.S. will ere long become one of the strong bulwarks of this grand institution.

We have come to the conclusion that the time has arrived when a branch should be organized within the bounds of this annual conference. And now that the British Columbia branch has been duly organized we feel that we stand on a more sure foundation, and trust, that with God's blessing we may be enabled to do more efficient work, and by the time another conference comes round to report a still greater degree of success. To secure this we need your hearty co-operation in all our undertakings, especially in the organization of auxiliaries and mission bands, on the circuits and missions where as yet there are none. In the distribution of literature, and securing subscribers for the missionary out-work and in bringing the work of the W. M. S. before your congregations.

Our work is pre-eminently for women and children; and whilst the general board is doing the pioneer work in sending forth its agents far and wide over fields already white unto harvest; we would take our stand by the reapers and humbly assist in harvesting the precious grain. With gratitude to the Almighty God, the giver of all good, for the innumerable blessings we enjoy through our holy Christianity, we desire to reach out a helping hand to our less favored sisters in this and other lands, that they, too, may participate in these blessings, which come to us through the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. We will gladly supply the ministers with reports, leaflts and mite boxes for distribution among the congregations.

Again asking your sympathy and assistance in the furtherance of our work, and we wish you God-speed in yours, let us unitedly labor on at God's command, offering all our works to him, so that we may rejoice together bye-and-bye when we join the host, redeemed of the Lord out of every nation in swelling the coronation anthem of the skies, as we "Crown Him Lord of All."

Rev. J. Hall, seconded by Mr. W. Clarkson, moved and it was resolved, "That, having heard with sincere gratification the address of Mrs. Tate, we have much pleasure in assuring the Woman's Missionary Society of the great satisfaction it affords us to learn of the very encouraging progress which their society has made within the bounds of our conference, as seen in the large increase of auxiliaries and of income, and especially in the formation of a British Columbia Branch. We pray that the future may be as the past, only much more abundant.

Rev. Dr. Carman and Rev. Dr. Sutherland and the President addressed the conference on the importance of the work of the Woman's Society.

The conference adjourned, the afternoon being devoted to committee work.

THE STANDARD LIFE.

The Sixty-Fifth Annual General Meeting—Results for the Year—A Grabbing Report.

The 65th annual general meeting of the Standard Life Assurence company was held at Edinburgh, on Tuesday, the 28th of April, 1891, to declare the results of the business for the past year, and to receive the report on the investigation of the company's affairs, and division of surplus funds for the five years ended 15th November, 1890.

The following results for the year ended 15th November, 1890, were reported:—

3,390 New Proposals for Life Assurance were received during the year for	$8,770,750
3,030 Policies were issued, assuring..	$7,651,606
The Total Existing Assurances in force at 15th November, 1890, amounted to	$104,655,491 inclusive of sums re-assured with other offices.
The claims during the year amounted, including Bonus additions, to	$3,052,000
The Annual Revenue for the year ending 15th of November, 1890, amounted to	$1,827,524
The Accumulated Funds at same date amounted to	$36,444,640 being an increase during the year of $701,050.
Invested in Canada over $6,000,000

The total surplus of the five years was found to be $3,230,350, from which, after providing for the intermediate bonus already paid between 1885-90, and setting aside a further sum of $194,666 towards the reserve fund, which would now amount to $389,333, the following bonus was declared, giving reversionary additions to the aggregate amount of $4,934,800, viz.:

To the colonial scheme a bonus at the rate of $14 per $1,000 per annum, being at the same rate as the last bonus.

With an intermediate bonus at the rate of £1 per cent. per annum for policies becoming claims between 15th November, 1891, and 15th November, 1895.

It was also intimated that after this date the claims under all the company's policies would be payable immediately on proof of death and title to the satisfaction of the directors.

WHAT THEY SAY ABOUT "TRUTH."

Toronto TRUTH has many thousands of testimonials in its possession speaking in the very highest terms of the prizes won. We wish we could give them all, but we have only space for a couple of recent ones.

WON THE PIANO.—Miss Bella Archer, daughter of our Reeve, Mr. J. W. Archer, has been successful in winning the $600 prize piano offered by S. Frank Wilson, Toronto, in a Bible competition. Miss Bella has been very successful in former competitions of this kind, and is entitled to the hearty congratulations of her friends.—Collingwood Enterprise, Jan. 15th, 1891.

ST. THOMAS, Feb. 16th, 1891.

I take much pleasure and delight in acknowledging receipt of the handsome square piano offered as first prize in "TRUTH'S Bible Competition, No. 21." I also thank you exceedingly for the promptitude with which you answered my letter by forwarding it to me on the following day. I had really not expected it for some weeks Several persons of musical talent have already examined it and all pronounce it a first-class, genuine piano, both in tone and finish, and say it is in every respect what you claim it to be. I will be pleased at any time to exhibit it to anyone who may wish to know the fairness and honesty of the competition. I have no doubt but that you will receive many of my friends' names as subscribers to your valuable paper, which is well worth the money as a household friend. Again thanking you for your valuable reward.—MRS. GEO. SHAW.

Of One Opinion—Victoria Recognizes True Merit.

During the visit of Professor Seward, the celebrated optician of New York, last fall, a large number of prominent ladies and gentlemen, not only of Victoria but surrounding cities, called and had glasses adjusted to their eyesight, and now, since Professor Seward's return, he finds, as he expected, the universal expression to be, "His work is the best that has ever been accomplished in Victoria" Professor Seward has been specially successful in correcting the most difficult of defective sight, also of adjusting cataract glasses and fitting artificial eyes. His stay in Victoria can only be of short duration, as he has promised on this trip to stop at Nanaimo, Vancouver and New Westminster, and at Seattle and Tacoma on the Sound, which he could not do on the last trip on account of limited time. This will be the last trip to the Pacific coast. A record of the examination and test of each patron is kept on file, and the glasses can be duplicated at any future time by addressing Prof. F. D. Seward, P.O. box 3,567, New York. Office hours while in Victoria, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Cor. Yates and Douglas streets, over drug store.

Minor Matches To-day—Fifty Mile Bicycle Race In Arrangement —Lively Club Meeting.

THE WHEEL.

The Wanderers Bicycle club is not dead yet—not by any means. There were 24 members present last evening, when 18 new names were added to the roll. It was decided to have the five mile race for the Bourchier medal and the championship of the club, run on Monday next, after the events arranged by the celebration committee, solid tire roadsters only being allowed, and the entire club being entered. At least 30 riders are determined to start in this race, which promises to be the most interesting cycling event ever contested in British Columbia.

Fifteen hundred lanterns and a quantity of fireworks will be used in the carnival parade Monday night; the boys will meet at the Caledonia grounds to decorate the wheels, and visitors can secure all material necessary for decorating there.

A challenge was ordered to be sent to the newly organized Victoria Bicycle club, for a road race on solid tires, to Race Rocks and return (about fifty miles), race to be run within one month, for a club banner, six or eight men to constitute a team.

The club next decided to secure and furnish at once suitable club rooms, and H. J. Scott, C. W. Minor and C. H. Gibbons were named as a committee to investigate and report thereon.

Messrs. Godson, Begg, Christie, Gibbons, McLean and Minor were appointed a reception committee to act during the celebration, and a Club run to Goldstream and return was decided upon for Sunday next, in order that visiting wheelmen may enjoy a spin over the excellent road between this city and that popular resort. The officers of the Westminster Club were present during the meeting, and reported that both the Vancouver and Westminster Clubs would send good delegations on Monday. Three cheers for the visitors brought the proceedings of a busy night to a close.

CRICKET.

The following second team of the Victoria Cricket club will play, to-day, at Esquimalt against H.M.S. Nymphe and Pheasant, the game commencing at two o'clock: Messrs. Innes, Schwengers, Dowler, Brown, Rhodes, Jones, Kingham, Scroggs, Hewitt, Walbey and Green.

THE TURF.

Chambers' fast mare, Maud C., has arrived at Olympia in good condition. The races take place there on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Efforts are being made to get Elford's Polly to go over also, and Belle Watts may accompany her.

WRESTLING.

D. S. McLeod, who is now here, says that his match with Joe Acton, "the Demon," is now off, and he will leave for Australia in about a fortnight. He does not contemplate any big work in the Antipodes, but may try some of the Australians a fall before he comes back. Cameron is now in Vancouver, and Dan may meet him before going away.

HERE AND THERE.

Indian Officer James promises twelve canoes to take part in the races, on Monday.

Billy Waters has accepted Fred. Leveque's challenge to a six-round match for points, with 6-ounce gloves.

PERSONALS.

Thos. McNeely, of Ladner's Landing is over.
G. B. Wright left for Kootenay this morning.

Louis Redon returned from the mainland last night.

THE UNENFRANCHISED.

TO THE EDITOR:—The Mayor and Aldermen do not represent the City of Victoria; they may be the representatives of the old city, but assuredly not of the addition to its boundaries, made a short time ago. The new citizens have not any representatives at all, neither have they any votes, and indeed, if they had the latter, it would not make any difference, seeing that they have not any members. Under these circumstances it is assuredly illegal to borrow any money, without the property of these new citizens would be mortgaged to repay it, without their consent having been first obtained through their representatives. Any bye-laws of this nature would immediately be quashed by the Supreme Court, upon complaint being made by any interested parties.

CAUTION.

DIED.

WILCOX.—At Nanaimo, on the 22nd instant, James Wilcox, eldest son of the late James Wilcox, and brother of Mrs. J. Johnston, of this city.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring time or, in fact, at any time and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.
